

Since 2010, The Atlantic Reed Consort has endeavored to bring chamber music to a broad audience in an unexpected format. A quintet comprised of oboe, clarinet, saxophone, bass clarinet and bassoon, this cutting edge sound and style both embraces the contemporary and adds a new twist to the likes of Bach, Ravel, and Gershwin.

One of the Mid-Atlantic region's most sought-after chamber music groups, the Atlantic Reed Consort has recently been featured in multiple appearances at the Smithsonian National Gallery of Art, as well as the Baltimore Composer's Forum, INTERSECTIONS DC, Creative Alliance at the Patterson (Baltimore), and in January 2017 made their debut New York City performance in Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall.

Past collaborations include performances with Dissonance Dance Theatre, Moveius Contemporary Ballet, and the Alexandria (VA) Choral Society. Committed to new music, ARC has commissioned and premiered works by Jessie Montgomery, Nathan Lincoln-DeCusatis, Steve Gorbos, John Elmquist, Gregory C. Brown, John Morrison and Robert Thurston.

Their debut album, Atlantic Reed Consort, can be found on iTunes. Connect with them on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram and visit their webpage at www.arconsort.org.
